

STORYLINE

BIOGRAPHY

Storyline is a female-fronted Pop/Rock band based out of Missouri with a sound similar to that of Jimmy Eat World, Avril Lavigne and the All American Rejects. The band receives over 2000+ plays from their 100,000+ MySpace friends daily. Their current album, Welcome Home EP, was produced by Stephen Christian of Anberlin (universal republic) and features their hit Song "Welcome Home" which is the theme song for the tv series "Alumni" on The Halogen Network -- airing in over 12 million homes. The band is currently working on their next album scheduled to release in the Spring followed by a Summer of touring.

REFERENCES

Storyline performed for our annual youth conference, and we could not be more pleased with their performance and overall demeanor. Each one of the members were so open and inviting to kids at the conference and did their best to talk to each one of them even hours after the conference was over (which is something I cannot say for the national acts we had there). There performance was beyond what we expected as well. The group performed like a national act and did an excellent job connect with the 2500+ youth that were there. A+!

Storyline is a pleasure to work with. Members of Storyline are the nicest, and most professional musicians you could imagine working with. The band was very quick with their response through all means of communication. They are also a very easy going and flexible group of people, which makes for one less hassle at a show. Storyline also puts on a high energy, active, and crowd friendly show that can be enjoyed by all ages. Down to earth and positive lyrics in Storyline's music also makes for a pleasant change of pace at any show. Storyline was a pleasure to work with at AgapeFest 09, I look forward to working with them again, and I strongly encourage you to involve them in your production as well.

The members of Storyline are some of the most gifted, humble, and giving people I know for their age. Each of them are involved in our churches worship team on a weekly basis, and are actively plugged into the life of our church. Ashley, Bryant, Geno, Mike and Zack each have a passion for seeing their listeners lives and spiritual growth. Whether its through their own set, or worship, Storyline does a great job in challenging listeners to search their heart.

We had Storyline out both for their worship services and original music performance, and could not recommend a band any more. The band did an amazing job leading worship for our youth camp and got even some of our most stubborn teens interacting in the worship. Their worship was the perfect mix of high energy songs mixed with slow songs for times of spiritual response. Their original set was equally full of energy and they did a great job of getting the kids interacting in their set.

But probably the biggest plus I can say about the band is their "after show" interaction with the kids. They each took time to talk with the kids at the end of the night and took pictures, answered questions, and sincerely plugged into the lives of the kids at the camp. And I know that several of the youth at our camp still talk with members of the band to this day via online channels. Superb band.

Mission Statement:

Storyline's passion as a band is to bring positive, real-life music to anyone searching for hope, love, and true friends who can relate to what they are going through in life. We feel there is nothing more important than the fans/friends we make through our music, and through those friendships make a connection on both a personal and spiritual level.
